

LAND AND WATER CONSERVATION STUDY COMMISSION

Sen. Charles W. Albertson

Rep. Lucy T. Allen

Wednesday, October 11, 2006
Room 424, Legislative Office Building
9:00 a.m.

I.	Introduction
II.	Importance of Land & Water Conservation to North Carolina's Economy and Future Kipling Godwin, Chair, Columbus County Board of Commissioners
III.	Existing Sources of State Funding for Land & Water Conservation <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Parks and Recreation Trust Fund Jonathan Howes, Chair, Parks and Recreation Authority• Natural Heritage Trust Fund Lisa Riegel, Executive Director, Natural Heritage Trust Fund• Clean Water Management Trust Fund Bill Holman, Executive Director, Clean Water Management Trust Fund• North Carolina Agricultural Development and Farmland Preservation Trust Fund Dewitt Hardee, Department of Agriculture
IV.	Unmet Conservation Needs in North Carolina Kate Dixon, Director, Land for Tomorrow
V.	Land & Water Conservation Efforts by Other States Will Abberger, Associate Director, Conservation Finance, The Trust for Public Land
VI.	Adjournment